SDG Library was thrilled to announce Craig Shreve as its 2024 SDG Reads author at County Council. His book, "The African Samurai," is a powerful historical novel that follows the true story of Yasuke, Japan's first foreign-born samurai and the only samurai of African descent. The final event with Shreve will occur during the evening of October 7, 2024 at North Stormont Place in Avonmore. Shreve will present his novel and answer questions, followed by a book signing. The event is free to attend. Stay tuned for registration details!
